

SATURDAY, 26th MARCH, 1938.

CHURCH G.A.
CERTAIN

Performance

Anderson Church provided a large sparkling entertainment in the hall on Friday. The performance was splendid and the girls attained a high degree of efficiency and credit on the work of their tutor, Miss Cissie horuses, accordion selections, dancing were included in the programme, and the brilliancy of each and every performer were sketches, entitled "Our Betty," and other parts of the program, musical items and singing by comparison. Miss G. Chambers had charge of the opening chorus, "Dance with me and my pals together" by Miss C. Lusk and Miss G. Chambers. The entire company sang Irish songs and recited an Irish jig by Miss G. Chambers. A little

"THE PAGEANT OF BLANTYRE"
Ambitious Production By Blantyre Church Sunday School

Interesting scenes in the history of Blantyre from the 13th century onwards were depicted in a pageant produced by members of High Blantyre Parish Church Sunday School this week. The function was held in the Miners' Welfare Institute on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The Pictures above (by courtesy of the "Daily Express") show the Herald (Miss G. Chambers) opening the pageant, and two of the Monks (Miss B. M'Alpine and Mrs M. Carruthers who lived in the Old Priory at Blantyre during the 13th century.

ROMAN GREEN

By You

While an East night wonderer to her daughter post haste, to the husband of Miss Annie Road, went to on Saturday night M'Stravock, of tyre.

The couple for some time, and decided to go and become m

Mr M'Stravock mechanic with a grow firm, got off.

Mr Rennison Green's marriage troubled by a peephole in his window at a couple of customers' doorstep, Mr Rennison pronounced.

Philosophical remarked, "When Ah would heart not to announce. He then performed the dance frock, with a lounge over her shoulder.